The Case of the Missing Fish

by Anita Amin

Emma and Alex went fishing with Grandpa at the beach. It was sunny and the waves gently rolled in.

After a while, Grandpa frowned. "No bites," he said. "Where are the fish today?"

"A mystery!" Emma cried. "Don't worry. Detective Emma is here."

"And Detective Alex!" Alex added.

"We need clues." Emma studied the area. "There are a lot of shells here."

Some seagulls landed nearby.

"And a lot of birds," Alex added.

The seagulls pecked at the sand. Then they took off, flying over the ocean.

"Look," Emma said, pointing to the seagulls. "Why do those birds keep diving down to the ocean? Something fishy is going on."

Alex said, "Maybe they're trying to see the ocean better."

"Or maybe they're trying to see something in the ocean better," Emma said.

"You think they lost something?" Alex asked.

"Or found something. Look!" Emma cried as a seagull flew over them.

In its beak, the seagull was carrying a small fish.

"Those birds are catching more fish than we are!" Grandpa laughed.

"Another case cracked by Detective Emma," Emma said.

"And Detective Alex," Alex added.

Story Time!

Directions: Read the following short story and fill in the boxes below based on what happens in the story.

Lucy was a bright little girl with hair that was chocolaty brown and a big toothy smile. She loved going to school because she had so many friends there. Her best friend was a girl in her class named

Nicole who wore her hair with big red bows and was the tallest girl in her class. One day while Lucy and Nicole were playing on the swings at school, another classmate named Billy came up to them and began to pick on Nicole! He said,

“Nicole, you look like a beanstalk, you’re so tall! Do you need binoculars to see everyone down here?” Nicole slumped as she heard this, but Lucy jumped in front of her, standing as tall as she could and said, “That’s not nice Billy!

Nicole wasn’t even bothering you, so why did you have to say something so mean?” Billy got flustered and said, “She may not have been bothering me, but she also didn’t invite me to play on the swings with you guys! I love the swings!”

“Is that why you decided to pick on her?” asked Lucy,

“All you had to do was ask us if you could join us and we could all play on the swings together!”

“Really?” responded Billy, “Is that okay with you

Nicole?”

“Of course!” said Nicole, “The swings are always more fun with more people!”

“Thanks guys!” said Billy, as he smiled, “And sorry, Nicole. I didn’t mean to hurt your feelings.”
