

Located in Eastland Mall just off Hamilton Road at The Outerbelt, Eastland Preparatory Academy provides a continuous EK-12 charter school experience for multiple communities in East Columbus.

The newly renovated facility includes large, modern classrooms equipped with state-of-the-art technology.

Celebrating its 10-year anniversary, Eastland Preparatory Academy offers hands-on, project-based learning with Art, Music and PE classes during the school day. Starting in seventh grade, students can participate in College Credit Plus, earning college credits while working toward high school graduation.

Eastland Prep's culture promotes school spirit and achievement with annual campus events and activities. The school also offers a variety of sports and extracurricular activities. Families benefit from free breakfast, lunch, health services, afterschool tutoring, and transportation.
